GOV. EASLEY APPOINTS DAVIS TO ACUPUNCTURE LICENSING BOARD

Raleigh - Gov. Mike Easley has appointed Clara Davis of Raleigh to the North Carolina Acupuncture Licensing Board.

Davis is a spiritual life coach and meditation specialist in Raleigh. She is former vice president of the American Business Women's Association. Davis attended Middlesex Community College in Middlesex, N.J.

The board has a responsibility to deny, issue, suspend and revoke acupuncture licenses, establish requirements for acupuncture schools and authorize continuing education programs for licensure. The board has nine members, each serving a three-year term. The governor appoints three members. The Senate President Pro Tempore and the Speaker of the House each appoint three members.
